I love so many things about autumn: Leaves turning vibrant hues of red, yellow and orange; crisp, cool morning air; harvesting vegetables and herbs from the garden; simmering large pots of soups and baking fresh breads and sharing them with neighbors; day trips down back country roads to remote places along the Front Range – just for the scenery and to discover some new place; reading a good book outside in the fragrant semi-shade of a Ponderosa pine tree; harvest wine tastings. Ahh!

The days are sunny and in the low- to mid-70s, and the nights are chilly, dipping into the 30s and 40s. Can I have that all year long?

But autumn is short lived in Colorado. Soon, snow will fly again, and when it does, it could quickly pile up and linger, creating a sudden urge in some to grab their board or skis and head to the high country. Easy to do if you have the IKON PASS (on sale at ITT). Fill out a leave slip and pack your gear. Powder days are primo.

But, while autumn’s warmth still lingers, dig your fingers into a rocky crevice and climb rock walls. Make like Spiderman and feel like a kid again. Learn rock climbing basics from Outdoor Recreation’s highly experienced guides; they offer several rock climbing day trips in October.

Or do the next best thing – the Via Ferrata. Italian for “Iron Way,” the Royal Gorge Bridge and Park has a Via Ferrata, a protected climbing route in which steel cables are fixed to the rock wall. Guests then secure themselves to the cable. Together, the cable, climbing kit, and iron rungs assist the climber, up and over these tall granite walls. It’s an exciting, new Colorado attraction. Thrilling!

If you feel like you’ve been climbing the walls inside far too long during the pandemic, get outside with Outdoor Recreation and climb Mother Nature’s rock walls – at Shelf Road (October 9) or Clear Creek Canyon (October 9) or the Royal Gorge’s Via Ferrata (October 17). They’ll give you a new perspective on things.

See the great day trips we’re offering in October.

SPACE FITNESS Challenge

Here's how to join the Space Fitness Challenge:

Step 1 – Get the App
Go to your App store and find the “Nike Run Club” app. Click “Install” to begin downloading the app. It's free to download.

Step 2 – Build a Profile
Once the app is downloaded, boot it up.
Click on the option to join and fill out the “Become A Nike Member,” followed by a series of preferences and questions. Continue until you arrive at the main ‘home’ screen.

Step 3 – Manage Settings
Click on your profile picture at the top left of your screen. From here, click on “Settings.”
We will be focused on two: “Units of Measure” and “Run Settings.”
Units of Measure – Determines whether or not you are using the metric system.
Run Settings – Alters what you want to be happening while you’re running.

Step 4 – Join the Club
Exit your profile and click the “Challenges” tab from the tab menu, or the two-people icon at the bottom of the screen for iPhone users.
Click on the “plus” icon at the top right of your phone to search for friends, type in “Peterson Fitness Club” and add us. We’ll be easy to find.
Send us a request and wait for us to accept it. You’ll get notification when we do, so it’s advisable to turn on notifications.

Once we’re friends, go back to the Challenge page and join our challenge. Or we’ll invite you to see if we see you’re our friend but haven’t joined yet.

Step 5 – Track Your Status
On the SK Challenge page, you can see how many miles you’ve run, how many days are left to run it, your place in the leader boards and your total distance run.
To add mileage to the event, go back to the home screen and hit the “Start” button once you’ve set up your run. Make sure you are on the right “Indoor/Outdoor” setting for your run. The app will add the mileage in the background, so don’t worry about keeping it open. As long as you hit “Start” before your run, you’ll be golden.

Or, participants can sign up with the Fitness Center staff, who will be using the Nike app to track your miles. Until the Fitness Center fully reopens, participants who currently don’t have access to the facility will need to email a screen shot of their miles to the Fitness Center staff so they can keep a running tab of your miles.
For more information, contact the Fitness Center staff at the front desk, 719-556-4462, Option #1.

This includes WAPS, PME, DLLP, DLAB, CDC, EOC, AFCT, etc. This is a mandatory requirement. Individuals who are not in uniform will be asked to reschedule. We strive to create a suitable test environment for our Airmen, and we greatly appreciate your contribution to this by following all testing procedures.

Online Test Scheduling Through Your AFVEC Account: You can now schedule your PME, DLLP and DLAB exams online. Test dates can be requested via The Air Force Virtual Education Center (AFVEC) under the Online Tests Requests tab. PRIVATE PILOT GROUND SCHOOL

The Rocky Mountain USAF Flight Training Center (aka Aero Club) offers a Private Pilot Ground School about every eight to nine weeks. Cost for the Ground School is $650.

While the course is a Jeppesen online course, you will meet with the instructor every other week from 6-8 p.m. to go over course materials and have a chance to ask questions. Completion of this course prepares you to take the FAA Written Exam with the endorsement from the instructor and satisfies the FAA minimum requirement for the Ground School portion.

After you pass your FAA Written Exam, you will have two years to complete the flying portion and pass the Checkride with an FAA DPE for your Private Pilot License requirements.
